WHY SHOULD YOU APPLY TO BE A PART OF THE CRR’S NEW TEACHER INDUCTION PROGRAM?

- Understanding the challenges of being a new math teacher
- Catering to your needs and providing you with targeted support
- Coaching that helps you be successful
- Exploration of math topics to understand content more deeply
- Sharing activities and strategies to use in your classroom
- Developing effective strategies for your classroom and mentoring support for your students
- Focusing on the critical areas of the standards to help inform your lesson design and unit planning
- A supportive community of professionals that are in a similar position to you

*These agreements include adjustments and pivots for remote learning environments, if necessary. Content and delivery will be revised to match the changing landscape and the needs of the Induction Teachers, where they are. Saturday workshops would be converted to Zoom sessions. Regular coaching meetings would take place in Zoom meetings.
